To Whom It May Concern:

Re: ETHAN ARNOWITZ

I have had the pleasure of having Ethan intern for my firm for the last summer. Using the word "intern" is not quite accurate, since Ethan essentially jumped right into our studio last summer and became a vital member of several projects, contributing his considerable design talents and adding an extra set of hands to the development and documentation of two restaurant projects.

Prior to starting his summer with us, Ethan prepared a list of goals that he wanted to accomplish that summer. By the end of the 8 weeks, Ethan had surpassed every goal, not just checking things off a box, but showing how he had addressed each and every topic with either newly acquired skills or how he approached each "task."

Beyond the professional commitment and skills that Ethan brought to my firm, we will miss his spirit. He was adored by our team and wasn't shy when it came to asking questions or seeking out help and support from our staff.

I highly recommend Ethan to any firm looking for a bright, enthusiastic and highly skilled designer.

Please feel free to reach out to me should you have any questions regarding Ethan.

Very truly yours,
